7. Under this item, the Committee will have before it notes by the Secretary-General concerning the list of States whose initial reports under article 44 of the Convention were respectively due in 1992 (CRC/C/3), 1993 (CRC/C/8), 1994 (CRC/C/11), 1995 (CRC/C/28), 1996 (CRC/C/41), 1997 (CRC/C/51), 1998 (CRC/C/61) and 1999 (CRC/C/78). The Committee will also have before it a note by the Secretary-General containing the list of States whose first periodic reports were due in 1997 (CRC/C/65), and 1998 (CRC/C/70) or are due in 1999 (CRC/C/83).

8. Under this item, the Committee will also have before it a note by the Secretary-General concerning the States parties to the Convention and the status of submission of reports (CRC/C/89), as well as a note by the Secretary-General on the follow-up to the consideration of initial reports by States parties to the Convention (CRC/C/27/Rev.11).

Item 4. Consideration of reports of States parties

9. A tentative timetable for consideration of reports at the twenty-second session, prepared by the Secretary-General in consultation with the Chairperson and subject to approval by the Committee, is given below:

Tentative timetable for consideration of reports of States parties

Tuesday, 21 September	10 a.m.-1 p.m. 3 p.m.-6 p.m.	Venezuela "	(CRC/C/3/Add.54) "

10. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information.

11. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the twenty-second session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee at which their reports will be examined.

Item 5. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

12. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion of ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 6. Methods of work of the Committee

13. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance.

14. Under this item, the Committee will have before it a note by the Secretary-General on areas identified by the Committee for technical assistance and advisory services (CRC/C/40/Rev.13). The Committee will also have before it a note by the Secretariat containing a compilation of the conclusions and recommendations adopted by the Committee at its first to twenty-first sessions (CRC/C/19/Rev.9).

Item 7. Commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the Convention

15. In view of the commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the adoption by the General Assembly of the Convention on the Rights of the Child (999), the Committee exceptionally decided to postpone its next thematic debate to 2000 and instead agreed to co-organize, with the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, a two-day meeting during its twenty-second session (30 September - 1 October 1999) entitled, "The Convention on the Rights of the Child: a decade of achievements and challenges".

16. The meeting will have two main objectives: to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the Convention and to highlight major achievements and constraints in the implementation of the Convention, following the approach favoured by the Committee, with the main focus on the lessons learned from implementation efforts at the national level. The discussions will keep a clear focus on the need to:

(a) Identify achievements and examples of best practice;
(b) Identify challenges for the future and examples of constraints;
(c) Formulate recommendations for future improvements.

17. The expected results of the meeting are:

(a) Commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child by the High Commissioner for Human Rights and the Committee on the Rights of the Child, in cooperation with traditional partners (UNICEF and the NGO Group);

(b) The adoption by the Committee of a set of recommendations for future implementation of the Convention, which can be of use for the United Nations and other partners in connection with the celebrations organized for 20 November 1999.

18. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue the elaboration of general comments based on the various principles and provisions of the Convention.

Item 8. Future meetings of the Committee

19. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 9. Other matters

20. Under this item, members may wish to discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.

Notes:

1/ A revised version of the initial report of Niger submitted in 1994 (CRC/C/3/Add.29), which would take into account the general guidelines for reporting was requested for submission by the end of 1994.

2/ A revised version of the initial report of the United Republic of Tanzania submitted in 1994 (CRC/C/8/Add.14), which would take into account the general guidelines for reporting was requested for submission by the end of 1994.
